
K- 5 Dress Code Policy

Denver Academy of Torah

Kindergarten

- While we do not require uniforms in Kindergarten, students should dress in the spirit of the dress code.
- Shirts with a collar and skirts for girls are preferable, and pants and t-shirts are permissible.
- Kippah and Tzitzit should be worn at all times. Students should bring bobbie pins or clips to keep kippahs on during gym and recess.

Grades 1-5

SHIRTS

- Shirts should be button down or “polo” style with 3 or 4 buttons and a collar.
- Shirts may be long-sleeve or short-sleeve.
- Acceptable colors are: white, navy, gray, or light blue, pale pink or pale yellow.
- Shirts should not have emblems or logos, other than a DAT logo.
- Sweatshirts or sweaters may be worn in solid uniform colors with or without the DAT logo. In addition, sweatshirts that include an image or logo that supports the IDF, Israel, or bear other Israel support related messages are allowed. Any sweatshirt with a DAT Logo is also permissible.

BOYS

- Shirt (as described above)
- Acceptable pant colors: khaki, navy, black or gray. No jeans, sweatpants, athletic pants, or anything similar.
- Kippah and Tzitzit should be worn at all times. Students should bring bobbie pins or clips to keep kippahs on during gym and recess.

GIRLS

- Shirt/blouse (as described above)
- Acceptable skirt and jumper colors: khaki, navy, black or gray.
- Skirts and jumpers may be of any style (pleated, A-line, straight, etc.) and should cover the knee when sitting, walking or playing. Slits should not be above the knee. Skirts should have ample flexibility and material to allow for comfortable movement while meeting dress code.
- Leggings or tights may be worn under skirts, but are not required.

GENERAL

- Shoes should be of sufficient coverage and toes should always be covered. Crocs and flip-flops are not allowed.
- Shoes should remain on a student's feet throughout the day. Should a student wear snow or rain boots to school, they may choose to bring an extra pair of shoes to change into.
- Clothing and hairstyles should be appropriate and not create distractions.
- Undergarments should not be visible.
- Clothing should be neat, clean, and in good repair.
- Clothing should be appropriately loose fitting.

DAT SPIRIT FRIDAYS

- All students in K-12 are permitted and encouraged to wear DAT logo clothing.
- DAT T- Shirts are permissible on Fridays only.
- DAT apparel will be available for purchase at the Meet and Greet Picnic and online.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION ATTIRE

- On P.E. days, K- 5 students should wear appropriate clothing that allows for full movement during activities.
- Girls may wear shorts under their uniform skirts. Girls may not wear pants under their skirts.
- Gym shoes or sneakers are required for all activities.

A note on modeling...

Parents attending a school performance or visiting a class are asked to dress modestly, in the spirit of the school dress code style.

The school will enforce these policies. As parents, please partner with us in helping students to follow these school rules.
